Located right on the second line of the Port de Sóller, this house offers great views to the sea and the harbor. It is really close to the beach and there are some steps to get directly on to the first line without having to go along the road. The house was built in the 80s so it needs some modernization but it offers great outdoor space and terraces all around the property. It also has access for the car. Over three floors it has three double bedrooms and two full bathrooms. It is also equipped with central heating with gas.
