After the meticulous restoration of this Majorcan flat in an old townhouse, the property represents high comfort living in the most famous street in the heart of Sóller - Calle La Luna! The flat offers its residents an exquisite combination of discreet elegance and respecting the original elements of the flat such as hydraulic tiles, antique windows etc, combined with modern facilities, only refurbished about 5 years ago. The beautifully designed flat has two double bedrooms, a room with fireplace used as a living room, dining room with balcony, modern kitchen in a classic style, and bathroom as well as a small laundry room. The balcony is directly overlooking Calle La Luna and is the perfect place to feel the pulse of life and enjoy a latte in the morning. It is worth mentioning that Calle La Luna is pedestrianised for everyone else apart from property owners or deliveries. This is urban village life at its best!
