This mallorcan country house is located in a quiet neighborhood in Biniaraix. The beautiful planted garden with its pool and panoramic views to the mountains offers a nice place to relax and enjoy summer. The square of Sóller is within walking distance still and offers shopping possibilities and restaurants. Port de Sóller with its beach, harbor and restaurants is within a short drive of few minutes. The house itself offers two levels. The three bedrooms and two bathrooms are on the upper level. The cozy living room with TV / DVD is on the ground level. Next to it is the fully equipped kitchen with dish washer and a nice light dining area with sliding glass doors to open up to the outside terraces and garden. The garden further has table and chairs and sun loungers. The house is fully equipped with air-condition. There is central heating throughout the whole house and closed fire place in the living room. WIFI is also available.
