Between Sóller and Port de Sóller there is a small magic valley called Sa Figuera. Surrounded by citric and olives trees we found this amazing country house, with its beautiful and well-kept garden and with plenty of spacious terraces all around the house, that invites the guest to relax and chill out. The house, with over 300 m2, offers 5 double bedrooms, all of them with bathroom on suite. The property is equipped with central heating so it is well equipped for the winters in Mallorca, as well with A/C. It has an enormous water tank used as a pool and even has a sauna. Due to the great location the property enjoys sun all year around. Don't miss your chance, a house like this doesn't not come up for sale very often!
