This Mallorcan country house has approx. 156 m2 of built area and is located in Port de Sóller, only a few minutes walk from the beach and restaurants. Originally a large finca and later divided into three parts, this is the middle part which is for sale. The house enjoys a lot of sun and unobstructed views of the surrounding gardens and mountains. The house has two floors and a cellar. On the ground floor there is a spacious kitchen with access to the outside terrace, garden and bathroom. There is also a small living area with a wood-burning stove. The first bedroom is on a mezzanine floor and upstairs are the other bedrooms and a large bathroom. One of the bedrooms has a dressing room, which could also be converted into a bathroom. Car access is convenient via a private driveway and there is enough space on the property to park several cars under the carport or in the garage.
