Wonderful new built villa only 5 minutes walking distance to the centre of Port de Sóller and the beach, but in a quiet and private neighbourhood with spectacular mountain views. The house consists of three floors providing plenty of space for three large bedrooms, all with their own bathroom, balcony and terrace. The master bedroom has a bathtub with beautiful mountain views. The large kitchen/living room on the ground floor has an extra high ceiling and opens onto a spacious porch and the garden with swimming pool and spectacular valley and mountain views. Accessibility to the house will be easy for families with children but also for elderly or wheelchair users with a lift to all floors. Private outdoor private parking with electric vehicle charger located in front of the house. The reality for all kinds of reasons may differ from the information provided.
