This classic Mediterranean house, comprising four apartments, is located just a few meters from the Port de Sóller harbor. Here you'll find a wide variety of restaurants, shops, and a small beach. The historic wooden train runs several times a day to Sóller and Palma, and the bus stop is also easily accessible from this apartment. One parking space is available, and the apartment is situated on the first floor (no elevator). The generously sized apartment offers a spacious living room with TV, internet access, a fully equipped kitchen with a washing machine, three bedrooms, a bathroom, and a separate toilet. A breakfast terrace wraps around the apartment and extends into the living area, offering ample seating and two sun loungers. The apartment is fully equipped with kitchenware, towels, and linens. Not suitable for sharing. Utilities (electricity, water, and propane) are not included, and a two-month security deposit is required.
