This olivar is located in the quiet area of Sa Coma. It has a comfortable car access to the property. The property has two little casitas, one with one bedroom and the other one is like a porch, open in the front and closed all the rest. Both casitas were renovated in a very rustic and traditional style. There are two water tanks where the rain water goes and a water pump to bring it up to another deposit to have pressure in the stone built shower that is outside and for the kitchen use. The easy access, the quiet location, the status of both casitas and the size of the plot make this property highly attractive.
