This mountain cottage is located in a sunny and quiet location in the mountains above Sóller. You can reach the house still comfortably by car and drive about 2 km up the mountain. You park about 150 m from the house and walk through a small forest to the property. Next to the main house with a bedroom and a bathroom, there is another small building and a wooden shed. as typical for the cottages also this property does not have main electricity and it is not possible to have. The electricity can be produced by a generator or solar panels. The water is collected over the roof.
