Tucked away at the end of a private lane, this charming 400-year-old historic property set on three levels- previously a famed old vicarage - provides complete security, privacy & tranquillity. It enjoys breathtaking views of the Tramuntana mountains and Soller Valley. Lovingly restored to an exceptional standard, it offers marble, French oak & hand-made terracotta flooring & ancient pine beams throughout. The property has electric gates fronting its beautiful entrance which includes parking for four cars, a lawn & small pond frequented by fish and frogs in summer. Surrounded by spacious, traditional stone terraces - both sunny and shaded -the rear garden has a large swimming pool (12x6 metres, with electrically operated safety cover), al fresco dining areas and below, accessed by a flight of stone steps, an acre of wooded garden and orchard bursting with orange, lemon, olive and fruit trees. Five minutes walk to tram that runs between bustling Soller town and its port's beaches. The house is constructed over three floors. On the ground floor you find the spacious living room with open fire place, well equipped kitchen with dining area for 8 people and access out to garden. Few steps down from the entrance area you reach to a big suite with double bed, bathroom en suite and additional kids room with access out to side terrace. On the upper levels you find two double bedrooms en suite and another bedroom with two single beds. Further there is a separate bathroom on the ground floor with shower . This bathroom is accesses from outside over the covered terrace area.
