A charming townhouse in the centre of Sóller. The property was renovated in 2026 and offers a comfortable home with a garage and a separate guest area. This end-of-terrace house features a modern kitchen and living area on the ground floor and mezzanine level. The house also benefits from underfloor heating in the kitchen, living area, and bathrooms, ensuring year-round comfort.

The first floor comprises a double bedroom and a separate shower room. The top floor comprises a suite with a bathroom and an open-plan office area. The house has been fitted with built-in wardrobes and hot/cold air conditioning. In addition, the property includes a basement with a utility/laundry room.

In front of the house is a further separate building section housing the spacious garage and a small bathroom. Above the garage is an ideal space for guests, featuring a double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom and a separately accessible terrace.
