This beautiful property has everything you could wish for. A quiet location with easy access to the center, south orientation with sun all day long, large easy to maintain plot, pool and terraces offering spectacular views of the beautiful valley of Sóller and the surrounding mountains. The interior is divided into three floors. The first floor offers an entrance hall, living room with fireplace and a spacious kitchen-dining area open to the sunny garden. A full bathroom and laundry room are also on this level. The second floor has two bedrooms and a large bathroom and the upper floor is divided into a bedroom and a room currently used as a TV room. In the basement is the heating machinery and also has space for storage. Its proximity to the center and location in a low traffic street (only for neighbors), as well as the pleasant and sunny garden with stunning views of the mountains surrounding the valley, make this house a real gem.
