This spectacular town house impresses with its dimensions and for being in such good condition, having preserved many of the original elements. Originally, it was about three semi-detached houses that at the beginning of the last century were joined and reformed to form the house as it is known today. This home has been in the same family for generations and has been extremely well cared for and maintained. On three floors plus basements and a garage, with a total of approximately 575 m2 built, there are 5 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, several living rooms, a dining room and other rooms. To highlight a spacious garage for several vehicles. In its 136 m2 patio it is possible to build a pool to complete this wonderful oasis in the heart of Sóller. A unique and truly spectacular home that is hard to find anywhere else on the island
